

We are hiring to our Copenhagen office

We are looking for Associates and Senior Associates with 1-4 years of relevant full-time experience, as we continue to see growth in our business and experience a high demand for independent strategic financial advisory.

FIH Partners specialises in divestments, mergers, acquisitions, and IPOs for larger companies, financial investors and government institutions. The team consists of 30 full-time employees, who are among the most experienced within investment banking in Denmark.

The available position

You will join a strong team of Associates and Senior Associates, working closely with all levels of seniority in the company on the execution of existing transactions and potential new assignments.

Primary tasks include;

- Analysis of companies and industries
- Project based work – from pitch to closing
- Investment case positioning
- Company valuation
- Preparing presentation and transaction related material
- Execution of live transactions
- Daily interaction with internal project team as well as clients

Your profile and career ambition

The open positions carry a high demand to your intellectual and social capacity. Ideally, you have 1-4 years of full-time experience from a similar position with a Danish or international organisation. You are an ambitious and driven team player with a strong academic background and a high motivation for making a career in Investment Banking. In addition, you have:

- Strong insights to accounting and valuation practises
- A well-developed analytical flair
- An ability to present and communicate complex issues
- Outstanding communication skills, both orally and in writing, in Danish and English

We offer

We offer a challenging and versatile job with a steep learning curve, enabling your development of professional and personal competences. The work environment is team driven, dynamic and focused on high quality in all aspects. We offer projects of an international character and the opportunity to travel. The open positions aim at an ongoing career development.

Please forward your application with CV and relevant exam papers etc. to Lene Klintebæk at lkg@fihpartners.com. We are looking to fill the positions as soon as possible. If you have any questions as to job profile you are welcome to contact us at +45 72 22 47 15.

FIH Partners is the leading independent Danish corporate finance advisory firm. We provide independent value-adding financial advisory services to large and mid-size corporations, financial sponsors and government institutions as part of divestments, mergers, acquisitions, IPOs and other equity and debt capital market matters. Our track-record of 250+ successful transactions in Denmark and across six continents in combination with our independent, strategic and highly senior-led advisory approach, as well as our relentless commitment to succeed, has made us the preferred alternative to global investment banks in the Danish market and with many of our international clients. We are 30 professionals on ground in Denmark and New York City.
